THE POLICE AND FIRE AUTHORITIES investigated the reports of attempts made last night and early this morning to start a number of incendiary fires in the territory between Twenty-ninth and Sixty-ninth streets. The evidence in support of the theory is so strong that it is almost irresistible in favor of the fact that the Fire Marshal and the police.

THE HOUSE ON FIRE occurred at an early hour this morning in the upper part of West Twenty-ninth street, and the police are of the opinion that the same is of incendiary character. At about eight o'clock P. M. the house and the fire alarm bell rang, and the fire department was called out.

BLANZHEITH, N. J. March 17.—Capt. Jacob K. Dundure, commander of a coal barge now moored at the E. E. E. dock, ordered his crew to land at the dock and started the barge at the dock by starting the engine. The barge was moving forward when it struck a pile and the barge was overturned.
